

BIG CAT FROM LITTLE RIVER - Johnny Witte shows the 49-pound yellow catfish he caught Thursday night from Little River. He was using a throw line baited with a small, defined mud cat. Witte said the cat didn't put up much fight about being caught, and only tried "one run up the river" before it was hauled in.

Now With F.M.L.

THEN—We erred in a recent column. We tried to end World War II in Europe and see Washington's lights go on in April, 1945.

It was May 7, 1945, that we witnessed VE night in downtown Washington. Reminder came up on seeing a picture of President Harry Truman on his 86th birthday. He was walking at the rear of his car in Independence, Mo., his rear license number 5-745, dating the eventual end of the European war for the U.S. Picture was in NEWSWEEK.

It was April, April 12, 1945, to be precise, that President Roosevelt died, and when Mr. Truman succeeded to the White House.

NOW-NOW-NOW

We wonder how Mr. Truman views student reaction in 1970.

Given the same generation view in 1945-52, how long would have the White House remained at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave? Mr. Truman's decisions altered things, in fact inducing the age to which this young generation's trauma is attached. They were born about the last year of his tenure.

One does not dare put words in past-Presidents' mouths, but it would be safe to say decisive Harry Truman would diffuse the population as is assured in the 1970's, and he would diffuse this student anarchy as the present administration, albeit if a different label, is trying to do.

Once the campus question is abated, the population question must next be faced, assuming "Vietnamization" and Cambodia.

IGC Cited For Safety

Industrial Generating Company of Rockdale was chosen by the United States Department of the Interior as a winner in the mineral industry's 1969 "Sentinels of Safety" competition.

IGC was chosen in the surface coal category for completion of 250,768 man hours without a disabling work injury.

Announcement came in a congratulatory telegram from U. S. Senator John G. Tower on Thursday.

work out. If both occur, the cram-style student reaction and the influence east of the Mississippi will, to steal a phrase "go west, young man", and to add a phrase, go south, young man.

That's where the space is and lower quantities of pollutants. We bet that's what Mr. Truman might advise, being decisive, Midwestern and living west of the Mississippi.

Students now, however, in their "insight and wisdom", might put him down just as Mr. Truman's successors have been put down, including Mr. Nixon.

NOW-NOW-NOW

"We know lots of things we didn't use to know but we don't know any way to prevent 'em happening."

4th In State ...

Marcia Spells To IL Win

Marcia Barkemeyer became the first student in Buckholts history to repeat at a State Interscholastic League Meet last Friday as she won fourth place in Class B State Spelling competition held at the University of Texas.

It was the second consecutive year that Marcia has participated in the State contest and the second straight year that she has captured fourth place.

The sophomore from Buckholts High School scored a 93 on the 120 word examination, missing only 7 words and tying Virginia Welch of the Fort Worth Masonic Home for fourth place honors. Both girls missed third place by one word.

Mobeetie's Carla Ridgeway captured first place with a score of 98, Gene 'nn Herrin of Anton took second with a score of 96, and Janice Beseda of Penelope won third place with a score of 94.

County To Vote On Salaries

A resolution calling for salary increases for county officers was adopted by Milam County Commissioners Court at its May 14 meeting. The resolution will receive final action at the June 8 meeting.

The resolution calls for a $50 per month increase in salaries for district clerk, county attorney, county judge, county clerk, sheriff, tax collector, county treasurer, and commissioners of Precincts 1, 2, 3 and 4.

An increase of $25 per month is proposed for constables of Precincts 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, and 8.

The salary increases will be considered and adopted or rejected at the regular meeting of the Commissioners' Court at 9 a.m., June 8.

In Regional competition, Marcia missed only one word in winning first place and the right to compete in the State finals. She was awarded a trophy and a certificate after she defeated Barbara Radle of Lott, the district champion, for the Regional Crown.

Radle had previously won the District 33B Spelling meet in Temple and Marcia had placed second. Linda Marek, also from Buckholts, finished behind Marcia for third place honors.

Last year Miss Barkemeyer missed only two words in winning second place at the Blinn College Regional Meet and missed only three in capturing the District Crown.

This year's 4th place at the 60th State Meet presented Marcia the privilege of being the only student from Buckholts to compete in two state events. She became one of the first to represent the school in a state literary event last year.

For Homemaking Dept. Trustees To Study Bids

Cameron school trustees Thursday night opened bids on the proposed Homemaking building, viewed the school's insurance program, and voted to hire a replacement for the resigning tax assessor-collector.

Trustees also discussed applications for high school counselor and possibilities for vocational education programs in high school.

The three bids received for construction of a new building for the Homemaking Department were referred to the building committee for study.

Action on the bids will come at a special meeting to be called when the committee is ready to report. During the discussion of the building, Supt. D. R. Dodson said he saw no chance of a September completion on the building, which had been hoped for earlier.

Trustees voted to appoint the Camp Insurance Agency as servicing agent for the school's "big policy", which is renewable every three years.

A complete re-appraisal of school buildings covered by the policy was recommended, in view of inflation, and will be made before renewal.

A letter of resignation from O. G. Chamberlain, CISD tax assessor-collector, was accepted by the board. Chamberlain's letter stated that he has accepted a similar position with the City of Waxahachie.

Chamberlain said he will stay until the tax roll for 1970 is completed.

Board members voted to hire Paul Olbricht of Burlington to replace Chamberlain. Olbricht is presently employed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture as assessor for the Federal crop insurance program.

Supt. Dodson said that 508 taxpayers in the school district had not signed renditions for the tax roll. The Board of Equalization will meet during the week of June 15, he said.

Trustees voted in November to increase the assessment rate on taxable property in the school district from 25 percent of fair market value to 50 percent.

Dodson discussed applications for a high school counselor, and trustees recommended that he hire the best qualified applicant.

Board president Hilliard Thomas led a discussion on vocational training for high school students, emphasizing the need for some kind of business or office training for girls.

Thomas said addition of such training will contribute to a "better balanced program" in the high school.

The high costs of installing and maintaining some vocational programs for boys, such as auto mechanics, were cited, and trustees concluded, "we need it but we can't afford it."

In other routine business, the board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Mildred Martin and approved payment of bills.

Turbulent Weather Hits State

The moderate thundershowers that dumped 1.27 inches of rain in Cameron were welcomed by county farmers, while the same weather system brought death and destruction to other parts of the state.

The rain was caused by warm, moist air colliding with a spring cold front that slowly moved through Texas after stalling in the Panhandle area long enough to spawn numerous tornadoes, including the worst one in 17 years.

Milam County crops benefited from the rain, which started falling Thursday evening and by Friday had settled into a steady downpour as the cool front moved through.

It was the "best" rain since April 18, when 1.14 inches were measured, and on April 10, when 1.33 inches fell to boost crops.

Farmers are anticipating a good year for crops if the weather continues to cooperate as it has so far this year.

Other parts of the state were not so lucky, however as the week was marked by reports of tornadoes and floods.

A devastating tornado struck Lubbock Tuesday, killing 21 persons and causing an estimated $200 million in damage. Wacoans were recalling the tornado that struck there 17 years ago, on May 11, 1953, killing 114 persons.

Flooding was reported in Austin and in San Marcos, where 75 percent of the city was covered with water up to four and five feet deep in places. Two deaths were reported in San Marcos on Friday as a result of the flood.

Summer Softball For Girls Starts

Cameron area girls will have their day at bat this summer. Cameron Ministerial Alliance has announced plans for a girls softball program, grades 6, 7 and 8.

Organizational meeting for girls and parents will be 7:30 p.m., Monday, May 18, at the Cameron Junior High gym.

Rev. Don Marquart, representing the Cameron Ministerial Alliance, said the girls softball program should fill a long time need for summer recreation.

"The Cameron boys have had a well organized Little League program, but until now Cameron girls have had very few recreation programs designed for their needs and interests," Rev. Marquart said.

Service For W. Cryer

Wendell Cryer, 49, of 1205 North Central St., died in a Temple hospital early Thursday morning, May 14, following a long illness.

Mr. Cryer was born March 5, 1921, in Buckholts, the son of J. A. Cryer and Minta Russell Cryer. He was a veteran of World War II.

Funeral service was held at 2 p.m., Friday in the chapel of Green's Funeral Home with Nelson Stark officiating. Burial was in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Wendell Cryer; two sons, Cliff and Glenn Cryer; one daughter, Miss Jennie Cryer; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cryer, all of Cameron; two brothers, James Cryer of Hico and Kenneth Cryer of Fredericksburg; one sister, Mrs. David Miller of Cameron.

Spray Now For Pecan Casebearer

It's time spray trees for control of the pecan nut casebearer, according to County Agent J. D. Moore.

May 16 was the date agreed on to start spraying in Milam County, Moore said. Trees sprayed anytime from May 16 to May 23 should be adequately protected.

Moore said that moth emergence from casebearer pupae collected have been erratic due largely to the cool weather as well as other factors.

Two or three days after the adult female case bearer moth emerge, they deposit from 50 to 150 eggs on the tips of small pecans. Eggs are greenish white but later assume a reddish appearance.

First generation larvae hatch from eggs in 4 or 5 days and migrate to buds below the nuts to feed. After a day or two, they enter the nuts, usually at the base and feed each larva frequently destroying an entire cluster.

SPRAY MATERIALS
Guthion, Sevin, Toxaphene, D, D, T, or Malathion may be used at recommended rates. Good coverage and proper timing is very important.

A spray guide is available at the county agent's office.

WORSHIP IN CHURCH

That means everybody.

That means you. But to STOP, in this world of turmoil and toil, is almost a lost art. We've got to STOP, LOOK, and LISTEN for God. It is that time of day. We must realize we are eternal children of God, on the swift way to destiny.

Just as there must be "rests" in music, to give it phrasing and color, so must man "pause" with God, to refresh his soul.

There are warnings aplenty on the road of life. It would be very wise to STOP for His counsel; LOOK for His direction; LISTEN to His pleading.

His church steeple is a compelling force in every community.

It invites you to invest your life in her program of service.

'PATIO LIVING' FLUER DE LIS CLUB THEME

'Patio Living' was the theme carried out for the last meeting of the Fluer De Lis Garden Club Tuesday night, May 12.

In a casual setting at her country home, Mrs. Dan McDaniel was hostess for a spring picnic with co-hostesses, Mrs. James Camp, Mrs. Forrest Sapp and Mrs. Bernay Dusek.

Tables, carrying out informal living, with arrangements to fit the occasion, were displayed in settings of brunch, lunch and picnic.

A white cloth over a round table was centered with an arrangement of yellow silk daffodils and daisies bringing out the lunch theme.

The picnic table arrangement, less formal, was set with a yellow cloth, centered with an arrangement of fresh roses, daisies and fern in a wicker basket.

Five tables with yellow tablecloths, centered with hurricane lanterns over an assortment of paper flowers, identified the brunch element of the patio theme.

A picnic supper was served to twenty two members.

Liederkrantz Can Be Cooked!

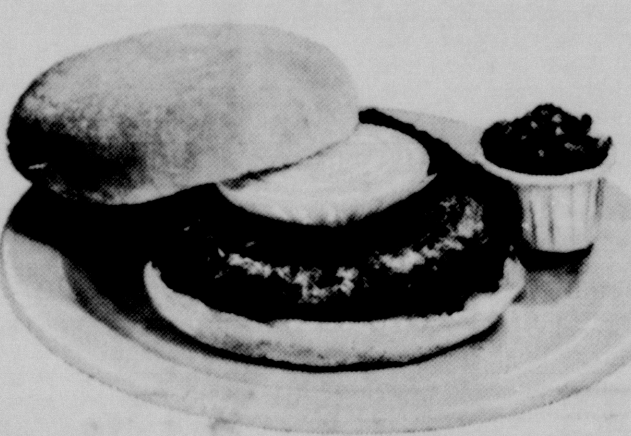

Creamy Liederkrantz cheese sauce with white wine sparks tasty cocktail-size ham balls. The Horden Kitchen calls this a double-duty recipe—it can be served as a hot hors d'oeuvre or over rice as an elegant entree.

Ham Balls in Creamy Liederkrantz Sauce

(Makes 34 one-inch balls)
1 lb. cooked ham
2 slices white bread
1 tablespoon vegetable oil
2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 lb. ground pork
1 egg
1/2 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper and paprika

Put ham through meat grinder; then the bread. Set aside. In small saucepan, heat oil; saute onions and parsley until onions are soft. Combine ham, bread, onions, parsley, pork, egg, salt, pepper and paprika. Knead gently for about 5 minutes. Shape meat into 1-inch balls. In medium-size saucepan, combine wine, 1 cup water and bouillon cube. Bring to a boil; simmer half of the meatballs for 7 minutes; remove from saucepan. Set aside. Repeat with remaining meatballs. Reserve liquid. In medium-size saucepan, melt margarine or butter. Add flour; stir over medium heat until foamy. Remove from heat. Gradually stir in liquid from meatballs and remaining 1/2 cup water. Return to medium heat. Stir briskly with wire whip until sauce thickens and boils. Add cheese; stir until melted. Return meatballs to sauce; heat about 5 minutes. Serve as an hors d'oeuvre or a main course with rice.

Beckhusen-Prater Exchange Vows

The sanctuary of Hope Lutheran Church in Buckholts was the setting Saturday evening for the wedding of Miss Judy Aline Beckhusen and James Bevil Prater.

The Rev. Ervie E. Braun read the double ring vows for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn E. Beckhusen and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Prater, all of Buckholts.

The couple exchanged their wedding vows before the altar banked with candelabra holding burning white tapers and with baskets of white gladioli, Golden spirals and a prie-dieu completed the setting.

Nuptial music was provided by Max McClaren, soloist, and Mrs. Hilliard Thomas, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white peau d'ange lace over silk peau de soie. The empire line bodice was fashioned with a scalloped high-rise neckline and matching lace bishop sleeves. Complementing her gown was a triple tiered peau d'ange lace chapel train accented with a peau de soie bow. A double queen's crown of seed pearls embellished with Austrian aurora borealis crystals held her bouffant elbow-length veil of illusion.

The bride carried white lace covered prayerbook topped with a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white cattleya orchid.

Miss Becky Beckhusen of Buckholts served as her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jo Ann Beckhusen of Buckholts, sister of the bride, and Miss Carla Peevey of Thornedale, cousin of the bridegroom. The attendants wore floorlength empire line gowns of daffodil yellow peau de soie. The lace covered bodices featured a round neckline and short sleeves of matching Chantilly lace. They wore headpieces of matching daffodil yellow crystalline flowers topped with shoulder-length veils of illusion.

Miss Jocelyn Glaser of Buckholts and Miss Abbey Persky of Rogers were flower girls. They wore floorlength gowns identical to those worn by the bridesmaids and wore a matching daffodil yellow peau de soie bow in their hair.

All attendants carried nosegays of daisies.

Bill Prater of Buckholts served as his son's best man. Groomsmen were Clifford Chevalier of Houston and Gary Kleyapas of Seguin.

Jeffrey Beckhusen of Buckholts, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Ushers were Howard Peeler and Edwin Peeler of Bryan, Jack E. Walzel, Jr. of Huntsville, and Kenneth Arnold of Buckholts.

Mrs. Beckhusen, mother of the bride, wore an ensemble of turquoise lace over matching linen. She wore white accessories and a white cymidium orchid.

Misses Joanne Schiller of Temple and Linda Synatzke of Rogers registered the guests at the reception at the Hope Lutheran Fellowship Hall. The registration table was laid with a white lace cloth and held a rice-bag tree.

The bride's table was laid with a floorlength white cloth decked with a yellow satin bow. It held the tiered wedding cake accented with swans and yellow net and topped with a bride and groom. Centering the table was the bride's and her attendants' bouquets, Burning yellow tapers in silver candelabra and a crystal punch service completed the table setting.

Serving at the bride's table were Mrs. James Hosch and Miss Carolyn Von Gonten of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Glaser of Denton, and Miss Joyce Arnold of Buckholts.

The groom's table laid with a wheat linen cloth held a silver coffee service and a chocolate cake accented with daisies. A yellow pillar candle in a silver candleholder surrounded with daisies and greenery centered the table.

Mrs. Stanley J. Glaser of Buckholts, Mrs. Wiltson Heil of Dallas, Mrs. Daniel Leskar of Rogers, and Mrs. Edward Marchak of New Braunfels presided at the groom's table.

Assisting with the gifts were Mrs. Paul Wychopen of Temple, Miss Tina Marchak of Galveston, Miss Debbie Matthews and Miss Dana Dungan of Buckholts, and Mrs. W. A. Persky and Mrs. C. O. Synatzke, both of Rogers.

Miss Deborah Glaser of Buckholts and Miss Jane Fuchs of Rogers distributed ricebags.

Also assisting in the house-party were Stanley J. Glaser and Willie Glaser of Buckholts, and W. A. Persky and C. O. Synatzke of Rogers.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Buckholts High School and attended Temple Commercial College. She was employed at Scott and White Hospital in the EKG and BMR department.

Lubbock's Pluck . . .

West-Texas Lubbock is winnowing from under $100 million of debris, having buried 21 persons caught in that horrific tornado.

Area dailies, particularly Waco's, have compared the tornado disaster that squashed a good segment of downtown Waco.

Lubbock is a resourceful city. Stories evidence their ability to absorb disaster. Gov. Smith noted he might return after leaving for a two weeks vacation to Europe with Mrs. Smith.

President Nixon has declared some nine counties and the Lubbock area disaster impacted.

We look back upon Hurricane Carla in the early '60's when Cameron housed some 1,500 refugees from the Gulf Coast. The destruction left in their absence was devastating.

Everyone empathizes with the tragedy ridden. But the people of Lubbock, like the people of Waco, are demonstrating their hardness in the face of catastrophe, an excellent example in a day when pure pluck is sometime considered stupid, archaic and inane.

Like everybody else, Cameron and Milam County wish Lubbock well. We would help them were their proximity closer. Perhaps we can give donations instead.

'Pressing' Toward The '70's . . .

Since much is said about the print media's role during the 1960's, the press small and large is surveying what must be done in the '70's.

This newspaper has pointed out some major newspapers are enamored of a national and international role while their central cities collapse, at least in ecology and social unrest.

Here is what "Passing Comment" notes in "Columbia Journalism Review":

"...we nominate these broad 'institutional' stories as the ten least covered by American journalism:

"Congress, Department of Defense, the police, the courts, state legislatures, local government, medical care, education, industry and the media."

These are primarily local or area problems of the news room. Most of them can be treated from local angles.

It's a good job for any newspaper's city room. The big picture stuff just is not as interesting to readers, even of The New York Times, if they are New Yorkers.

How does this newspaper rate? Only our readers can advise on that. And the number grows.

Pupil Accident Insurance

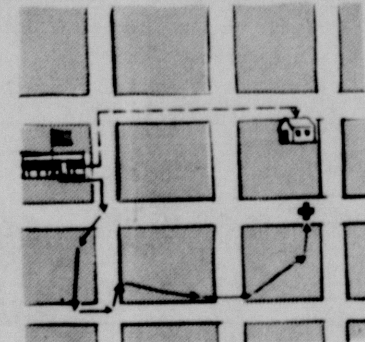

Growing in popularity are insurance policies that cover the schoolchild in case of an accident. Since the idea is relatively new, a number of legal questions have arisen—notably, as to accidents that happen somewhere between the school and the home.

Consider this case: A schoolboy, starting homeward after school, decided to make a slight detour in order to accompany a friend on a shopping errand. During the detour, the boy suffered a painful fall.

In due course, his parents tried to collect on a student accident policy, claiming that it covered their son while he was travelling to or from school. But the insurance company denied liability.

"Our policy did cover him on the way home from school," the company conceded in court, "but only if he was going 'directly'."

home. Here, although he was going home, he was not going directly. Therefore, this accident is not covered by the policy."

Nevertheless, the court decided the company would have to pay off.

"The deviation was slight," said the judge. "A practical and sensible interpretation of 'directly' will permit such a deviation. The company must have known the propensity of children not to follow a straight line."

On the other hand, there are limits as to how far afield the child can stray before losing his protection.

In another case, a youngster fell out of a tree and fractured his arm. At the time of the mishap, school had been over for almost an hour. Furthermore, the boy, instead of moving toward home, had actually gone some distance in the opposite direction. In these circumstances, a court ruled that the insurance protection did not stretch that far.

Of course, the terms of the individual policy may make all the difference. In another case, parents tried to collect on a school accident policy when their son got hurt right at home.

Obviously, the accident had nothing to do with school. Yet, the policy stated in so many words that it covered the boy on

Gov. Smith To Speak At DeCordova Bend Damsite

Governor Preston Smith will be the principal speaker at dedication ceremonies for DeCordova Bend Dam and Lake Granbury, Brazos River Authority officials announced today.

The dedication ceremonies are scheduled to be held at the DeCordova Bend damsite at 4:00 p.m. on Friday, June 19.

"This is a day that many people have been looking forward to for a long time," said A. L. Brooks, Jr., president of BRA.

He said the DeCordova Bend dam had been the dream, not only of the authority, but of people in Granbury and Hood County, for more than 30 years.

Brooks said this major water resource development project is unique in being financed and built without any tax money.

"Revenues from the sales of water will pay off the Brazos River Authority's bonds issued to finance construction of the project," he said, "with most of the revenues coming from sales of industrial water under a contract with two power companies, Texas Power and Light Company and Texas Electric Service Company."

He pointed out it was this contract that made it possible to build the project.

He said water would also be available from the project to meet other industrial as well as municipal and agricultural needs in the Brazos valley.

Charles Neblett, chairman of the dedication committee of the Authority's board of directors, said the public is cordially invited to the ceremonies.

The group left on their bus about 12:30 full of vim and vigor and returned at 6:30 "pooped but happy" and still talking about what a good trip they had made. It was amusing to hear each express his reaction to the trip—fun, educational, interesting, nice, exciting, and groovy!

4-H Girls Share Home Sewing Boom

One of the booming home arts today is sewing. Technology has made available a wide array of miracle fabrics, invisible thread, hidden zippers, and sewing machines that all but sew by themselves.

Learning to sew is no longer the tedious, baste-and-rip, time consuming chore it once was. More young girls are making their own clothes today than ever before. In school, at home, and especially through 4-H Clubs.

Nearly one million girls from 9 to 19 are engaged in 4-H clothing projects. This means they decide what to make, get pointers from their volunteer clothing project leaders, salesclerks, Extension Service personnel, sewing bulletins, and the educational department of Coats & Clark Inc.

This 156-year-old firm, which started out making cotton thread and now is a leader in sewing notions, has a 30-year record as sponsor of the national 4-H clothing program. In this time span, company officials have personally congratulated some 1,500 teenage girls for excellence in making their own clothes. These talented young seamstresses were top state award winners and guests of Coats & Clark at the annual national 4-H Congress in Chicago. More than 300 received national clothing scholarships.

Again this year, 51 girls, one from each state plus Puerto Rico, will travel to the Chicago congress at the expense of this faithful 4-H friend. Coats & Clark officials will be on hand once more to present $600 scholarships to six new national champions.

A half century ago, the average young American entered the labor force with an elementary school education. In March 1968, 5 out of every 8 American workers 18 years of age and over had finished high school, and 1 out of 5 workers with a high school diploma had completed college.

PRESBYTERIANS TO ATTEND SYNOD AT SHERMAN

Rev. Wirt W. Skinner, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Cameron, and Ruling Elder Drayton McLane, Clerk of the Session, will be in Sherman May 19-21 at the 115th annual Synod of Texas.

More than 600 Presbyterian U. S. ministers and laymen from all over Texas will meet at Sherman to discuss the denomination's future.

Increased cooperation with the United Presbyterian Church in the USA and continued concern for the disadvantaged and minorities in Texas will be the subjects of many of the recommendations before the Synod.

Outgoing moderator John Minter, pastor of University Presbyterian Church, Houston, will preach the moderator's sermon the opening night of Synod (Tuesday).

MOTHERS DAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jistel had as Mothers Day guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Kleiber and Shirley Jean from Schulenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pavlus Ensla and Cindy from Garwood, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Jistel, Darlyn Stacy and Anissa from Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jistel, Mike and Jayla, Mr. and Mrs. W. Edwin Gandy, who was a patient in Scott and White Hospital is home and doing fine.

It's clothes like these that 4-H girls love to make and wear. The garments have style, comfort and are perfect for most any occasion. 4-H has a program called Clothing wherein girls as young as 9 years learn to sew. Millions of girls can thank the Cooperative Extension Service, and Coats & Clark Inc., the clothing program sponsor of 30 years, for making possible this learn-by-doing project. The program is supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Inflatable Boats Ride Popularity Wave

Avenel, N. J.—Inflatable boats have come a long way from the familiar rubber life-raft of World War II.

This year, for the first time on a large scale, Americans are experiencing a new kind of boating experience. They are discovering that inflatable boats, which can be carried in a bag and pumped up in a few minutes at the water's edge, are now available at stores all across the country, in all sizes and shapes and for all boating purposes.

High quality, modern inflatable boats are hard to believe. Consider that a full performance six man power boat can be toted around in two easy to handle, suitcase sized packages. Consider that the boat can be inflated and ready for the water in a short time and that the same boat can pull two skiers.

There is nothing new about inflatable boats. For years they have been the most popular boat in Europe—more than sixty per cent of the boats used in Europe for recreation are inflatable. Today, Americans are demanding inflatables at a rate that may someday match that figure.

According to William Moore, President of Recreconics, Inc., a New Jersey based watersports company and leading marketer of inflatables in the United States, people are attracted to inflatables for a variety of very practical reasons.

"Inflatable are less expensive than rigid hull boats and a lot more practical for most families. They can be stored in the closet during the off-season. They can be toted in the back seat or trunk of a car—and in some cases, on the back of a bicycle. And, it is easy to keep them in good shape—just hose them off after use in saltwater."

Inflatable boats first became popular in the United States with campers and outdoorsmen. They found that inflatables can be easily carried into the backwoods and to inaccessible streams. They recognized that inflatables are tough and safe. They can often survive pounding seas and rocky rapids better than rigid hulled boats. Since most inflatables have broad, flat bottoms they are very stable, almost impossible to tip over.

"As people began to use inflatables," Mr. Moore said, "they began to recognize how really good they are. Our Speedyak 350 for example is a beautiful boat, carries 7 adults and can be fitted with a 50 hp outboard motor for skiing or racing. It is made with tough synthetic rubbers and fused with super strong nylon.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT, THIS IS AN INFLATABLE BOAT—Speedyak, by Recreconics, one of the amazing new inflatables. Just a short time before this photo was taken, the boat was brought to the water's edge in the trunk of a car. It is easy to carry in two suitcase sized packages. When inflated it can handle a 50 hp outboard, carry seven passengers, and tug two water skiers. The Speedyak, now available in stores across the country, is made of synthetic rubber and nylon, has individual floatation chambers for perfect safety and is resistant to oil, sun, water and salt.
